

The Duke of Edinburgh's Award is a programme of personal development. It is designed to test a participant's commitment, persistence, and initiative. You can start the Award when you have turned 16 years old and have completed the Silver Award.

The Gold Award

To gain the Gold Award you will need to undertake activities in each of the five sections shown in the table below and demonstrate improvement through persistence and commitment. There should be regular commitment over the time period shown averaging at least an hour a week for each section. Completion of all five sections of the Award will result in the presentation of a Gold DofE badge and certificate which may be presented to you at an Award Ceremony at Holyrood Palace, Edinburgh.

GOLD		Plus an extra 6 months in the Volunteering, or longer of the Skills or Physical sections, if you haven't got Silver.

Residential 5 days 4 nights

The Duke of Edinburgh's Award at Dollar Academy

Dollar Academy has a wealth of co-curricular activities and opportunities that can help a pupil fulfil the requirements of their DofE programme. Activities and opportunities that take place out of school can also be used. DofE candidates are responsible for setting up and organising their own placements in the Volunteering, Skills, Physical Recreation and Residential sections. The Academy will organise and set up the Expedition section for all candidates who wish to use walking as their mode of transport. Expedition training will take place in early June somewhere in the Highlands, followed by expedition assessment in NW Scotland later in June. The cost for registering for the Award, both expeditions, tent/stove hire plus a refundable £30 deposit is £328.50.

Upon registering as a Gold candidate, each pupil should enter details using the DofE app (or at www.edofe.org). This should be used to gather and present evidence of your involvement and completion of each section of the Award. Adding details here will result in a "Welcome Pack" of information being posted out to you.

Further information about the Award can be found at www.dofe.org

Dollar Academy Duke of Edinburgh's Award

Registration for participation at Gold level

Complete this form and hand it to Mr Johns, the DofE manager for Dollar Academy, in D17 in the Physics department.

I would like to register as a Gold level participant in the Duke of Edinburgh's Award. I will pay the £328.50 as a registration fee using Parent Pay. This comprises of a £32.50 registration (paid to the DofE charity), costs of both practice and assessment expedition, kit hire fees (tent/stove/gas) and a £30 deposit that will be refunded after the expedition on the condition that all kit has been returned clean, dry, and on time.

After handing in this form, a Gold account will be created for you: you should enter details using the DofE app (or at www.edofe.org). This should be used to gather and present evidence of your involvement and completion of each section of the Award. Adding details to the app will result in a "Welcome Pack" of information being posted out to you.
